

Lincoln Douglas Outline

Part 1: Introduction Affirmative (Time 7 Minutes)

Value: _____

Contention #1: Moral or Ethical Argument

*** Should include examples for each (Quotes; Anecdote)

Contention #2: Moral or Ethical Argument

Contention #3: Moral or Ethical Argument

Summarize Positions

*** 3 Minutes for Cross Questions from Negative Party

Part 2: Introductions Negative (Time: 8 Minutes)

Value: _____

Contentions #1: Moral or Ethical Argument

*** Should include examples for each

Contention #2: Moral or Ethical Argument

Contention #3: Moral or Ethical Argument

Offers Counterpoints to Affirmative Contentions

*** 3 Minute for Cross Questions from Negative Party

Part 3: Affirmative Response (Time: 4 Minutes)

Imbeds Items from the Cross Questions into next response

Offers counterpoints to Negative Contentions

Offering alternative examples further supporting contentions

Part 4: Negative Response (Time: 6 Minutes)

Continues counterpoints to alternative examples from Affirmative

Offers additional examples to original contentions or different perspectives to contentions

Makes a final statement or plea for agreement with the Negative

Part 5: Affirmative Rebuttal (Time: 3 Minutes)

Makes a final argument

Summarizes items

Makes a final statement or plea for agreement with Affirmative